About Trenčianske Teplice:

Trenčianske Teplice is a town of four thousand inhabitants. It lies in a valley where the river Teplicka flows at the foot of the Strážovské hills. The tradition of the thermal healing springs attracts more than 25,000 visitors annually. The peaceful surroundings, as well as the many festivals such as the annual International Film Festival, offer an inviting venue. Professional seminars, congresses and conferences have been held in the city for several decades, making it an ideal location for ICASSI.
