INTRODUCTION

ICASSI 2018 promises to provide many enriching learning opportunities. The Faculty, Board, and Administrative team members all look forward to seeing you in Bonn, Germany in the summer of 2018. The Rudolf Dreikurs summer institute of ICASSI returns to Europe, following wonderful experiences at ICASSI the prior year in North America.

This will be the 51st summer institute of ICASSI. The principles and teachings of Adler and Dreikurs are appreciated more than ever. As in all the previous years, the international summer program brings fresh ideas, novel applications, new faculty, and updated course material to our participants. The setting for the 2018 summer institute permits participants to enjoy the quiet beauty of the woods surrounding Haus Venusberg while also giving accessibility to the many exciting venues in the cosmopolitan areas of Bonn. Participants will enjoy the fact that in Haus Venusberg everything is very close: the classrooms, accommodations, dining hall, and pleasant areas for socializing. The setting is very appealing.

ICASSI 2018 will see the addition of accomplished new faculty members and will again have the wonderful teachings provided by long-time favorite instructors. There will be a broad range of program options. More German courses will be offered than in the past. In addition to the diversity of courses and instructors from many nations, the plenary morning sessions will be of interest to all.

As always, the Summer Institute brings together individuals from many nations, providing a truly unique opportunity to learn alongside and share experiences with colleagues from around the world. Participants will acquire knowledge and learn practical skills that will serve them in their professional and personal lives. Classes will deal with contemporary challenges in areas of parenting, couple relationships, school, counseling and clinical practice, workplace problems, and multi-cultural relationships. Adlerian principles and methods facilitate human relations in many areas of human life.

Adlerian psychology is as relevant as ever, with its focus on cooperation, equality, and mutual respect between individuals and groups, and its understanding of the whole person. In today's complex, fast-changing world, we must continue to find ways to help more people live healthy and strength-based lives. Whether you are a professional who counsels or teaches others or an individual or family member seeking personal development, you will benefit from the life-changing learning experience of ICASSI 2018.

1. ICASSI: INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE OF ADLERIAN SUMMER SCHOOLS AND INSTITUTES

A BRIEF HISTORY

ICASSI (the International Committee of Adlerian Summer Schools and Institutes) is a non-profit educational organization whose objective is to help professionals, students, and lay persons learn the teachings of Adler and Dreikurs and master appropriate skills, and to teach Adler's and Dreikurs' principles and methods where professional and personal development opportunities are needed.

Alfred Adler, a young colleague of Sigmund Freud in the early years of the 20th Century, developed a psychiatric and educational treatment and prevention approach that today would be called a strength-based and community-oriented psychology. The emphasis was on the fundamental motivation of human beings to belong and to contribute to the larger society in which they live.

Rudolf Dreikurs, a younger colleague of Adler, established ICASSI and the Summer Institute in 1962. Dreikurs created ICASSI because of his ongoing dedication to spreading the teachings of Adler to people around the world, not only as a psychological method of treatment, but as a philosophy of life.

In his early days of practicing psychiatry in Vienna, Dreikurs saw the need to extend his office into the community. He was convinced that use of Adlerian education methods in the home and in the school would enable children to reach a higher level of functioning. He believed they would develop a greater sense of their own strength and ability, and would learn the responsibility of citizenship in a free world. He was also convinced that prevention was more important than treatment.

From his immediate community, Dreikurs extended his work to the nation and then internationally, starting with his first visit to Brazil in 1937 and again in 1946. He moved to the United States in 1937, working internationally in Israel in 1959 and holding the first International Summer School in Denmark in 1962. He visualized the acceptance of "social interest" among a steadily widening group of people world-wide, who would experience living in harmony and peace.

It was Dreikurs' hope to hold the Summer Institute in a different country each year wherever there was a group in need of impetus to grow.

THEORY AND PRACTICE OF ADLER AND DREIKURS: IN A NUTSHELL

Adlerian psychology is holistic (each of us is a unique whole person), social, and purposive (human action is understood in terms of self-set goals, of which we usually are not aware). Mental health is understood in terms of a person's or a community's striving for contribution, equality, and mutual respect between individuals and between groups. Based on many decades of effective methods for prevention and treatment of psychological and social problems, Adlerian theory and practices offer concrete steps for improved human relationships in the family, school, and workplace, and in multi-national interactions.

THE ICASSI MISSION:

Using the theory and practice of Individual Psychology as learned through the teachings of Alfred Adler and Rudolf Dreikurs:

- Reach out to others through education, training, dialogue, and experience.
- Enhance the spirit of social interest, sharing, and cooperation, and foster equality by making a common effort to eliminate the barriers between nationalities, age groups, genders, religions, social classes, races, professions, and any other artificial distinctions by which humans believe themselves to be divided.
- Stimulate leadership in different countries and help potential and existing leaders in their efforts to establish a world of peace and cooperation.

“ ICASSI historically has its roots in two languages and provides translation to enhance learning and sharing in an international environment. ICASSI values the cultural and linguistic diversity that is fundamental to its success, and celebrates the more than 20 nations that participate each year. ”

SCHOOL POLICY

As a summer school, ICASSI seeks to promote a healthy learning environment. ICASSI expects faculty and participants to follow ethical and responsible behavior within the classroom and in the overall ICASSI program. Because social interest (Gemeinschaftsgefühl) is crucial in Adler's theory, every ICASSI participant is expected to demonstrate and promote a climate of mutual respect, cooperation, and consideration in interpersonal relationships. Appropriate action will be taken if the behavior of a participant negatively affects the learning environment.

FOR WHOM IS ICASSI INTENDED?

ICASSI offers a stimulating environment in which professionals, individuals, couples, and families learn within a diverse international collegial community. It provides unique instruction and experiential learning for professional and personal development provided by an international faculty. It is designed for:

Counselors & Psychotherapists	Teachers & Educators
Psychologists & Social Workers	Business Professionals
Coaches	Clergy
Birth, Foster & Adoptive Families	Children & Youths
Early Childhood Educators	Health-Care Professionals

The ICASSI program is unique in providing the highest quality of professional education in an enriching social environment. Participants choose from a wide range of courses in the theory and techniques of Adler and Dreikurs, with application to counseling and therapy, business, schools, families, the community, and the workplace. Experiential workshops provide professional training for the practitioner and opportunities for personal growth to all participants. As encouragement, cooperation and respect are fundamental Adlerian concepts, all workshops follow codes of confidentiality.

In addition, ICASSI participants are given the opportunity to present seminars on issues of concern to them through Special Interest sessions.

Participants come to ICASSI from around the world, typically from over twenty different countries. Recreational and multi-cultural exchanges are therefore integral parts of the ICASSI experience and contribute to a strong sense of fellowship and connectedness. Social activities also provide opportunities for the exchange of ideas, viewpoints, stories, songs and laughter.

For parents wishing to bring their families, there are courses for teenagers and an excellent children's program for 4-11 year olds under the supervision of multilingual and multi-cultural leaders.

4. PROGRAM WEEK 1

4.1 PLENARY LECTURES[†] FOR WEEK 1, 9:00 – 10:30

Monday, July 30	IP and Community – Eva Dreikurs Ferguson Adlerian Psychology is a social-personality-developmental psychology. Humans fundamentally have a need 'to belong.' To understand the individual we need to understand the person's relationship with the community. Striving to contribute to the community (Gemeinschaftsgefühl) is vital for mental health.
Tuesday, July 31	Social Equality, A Good Idea – Zivit Abramson The presentation will deal with issues connected to the concept of Social Equality. Is it a fact or maybe a belief? What makes it a good idea? Can we actually accept it for us? for others?
Wednesday, August 1	Law of Movement – Marina Bluvshstein Law of Movement is the most important law in Adlerian Psychology, a framework through which we view human personality, a magnifying glass showing us vectors of usefulness in human activity, a yardstick measuring a degree of alliance between an individual striving and a trajectory of human evolution. This presentation will invite the audience to integrate Law of Movement with the contemporary brain science, by detecting and actively using motor metaphors to ignite courageous movement in each of us.
Thursday, August 2	The Philosophy of As-If – Peter Pollak This presentation will provide an Introduction to Hans Vaihinger and his philosophy of as-if and its significance for Adlerian Psychology. Examples for its use in everyday life and in counseling will be given.
Friday, August 3	Psychological Muscle – Paul Rasmussen Psychological muscle refers to human strengths that need to be developed in childhood if one is to be prepared for the challenges of adulthood. Being an adult is difficult. An effective adult must be prepared to face burdens, get along with others, control impulses and cope with aversive feelings. Developing the qualities to face these challenges as an adult is not impossible, but is difficult. As Adler argued, it is easier to prepare the child than it is to cure the adult. Notions of psychological muscle are compared to basic life tasks, the Crucial C's and to historical and contemporary views of virtue and value.

4.5 COURSE DESCRIPTIONS FOR WEEK 1

Type A Courses: Week 1*

Mornings (11:00 - 13:00)

English Courses

A201, Balla, Marion – Caregiving the Caregiver

As Caregivers, we must be alert to signs of distress and 'compassion fatigue' as we juggle time, priorities, personal and professional expectations. This course will present the latest brain research on self-nurturing and self-soothing, the warning signs of symptoms which require our active intervention for self-care, as well as strategies to ensure we live more balanced and boundaried daily lives.

A202, Belangee, Susan – Adler's Purposefulness of Behavior – Why Humans Think, Feel, and Act as They Do

This course explores the concept of purposefulness of behavior as Adler developed it later in his theory. Experiential activities and discussions of reading material will help participants understand the concept.

A203, Bettner, Betty Lou – Developing Social Interest in Children and Youth

Adler said, "A person of genius is primarily a person of supreme usefulness. Social interest is the barometer of the child's normality." and "As long as the feeling of inferiority is not too great, a child will always strive to be worthwhile and on the useful side of life." While social interest is innate in the child, it has to be consciously developed. This course will explore what the environment and education can provide that guides a child to "see with the eyes of another, to hear with the ears of another, to feel with the heart of another."

A204, Ferguson, Eva Dreikurs – Individual Psychology in the Workplace

Adlerian psychology helps improve human relationships in all settings, including the workplace. Workplace solutions are applicable also to problems in the family and school. Participants' own work problems are discussed. Work roles, conflict resolution, group dynamics, and personality variables are viewed within the Adler-Dreikurs framework. (1+2)

A205, Joosten, Theo – Cooperative Problem Solving

In families, community or professional settings, people meet problems. This course will explore practical ways of helping each other find encouraging solutions to these social challenges. The language and the incident method will get special attention. Participants will be able to apply the incident method. Case examples provided by the participants will be used.

A206, Rasmussen, Paul – Emotions and Private Logic

In this course the adaptive use of emotions will be presented. Discussion will include the two major categories of emotion, the three critical purposes of emotions, the relationship between emotions and intuitive, and private logic. This information is important in understanding one's own lifestyle and the nature of many clinical conditions.

A207, Shifron, Rachel – Early Recollections, the Therapist's Treasures

ERs are metaphors, a creative way to describe accurately the patient's current emotional state. The metaphoric language is essential for the development of a mutual language between the therapist and the patient. The creative way of working with ERs will be the main theme of this workshop. This workshop is open for therapists and counselors, people who work with individuals and couples.

A208, Tate, Bruce – Personal Growth

Adlerian Psychology views personal growth and development as tasks that we all face in dealing with the challenges of life. Throughout his writing, Adler highlights striving to overcome a sense of inferiority. Identifying personal strengths and courage is therefore important for practitioners in helping people to achieve goals and handle challenges.

A209, Walton, Frank – Family Counseling

The primary means of teaching this course will be through live demonstrations with parents, children, and/or adolescents, and will include lecture, and small group discussion. Participants will be given the opportunity to participate in a family counseling demonstration and will have an opportunity to observe and experience use of “the Most Memorable Observation” as a means for understanding how one’s belief system influences choice of parenting style. Helping families of children who meet the criteria for the ADHD diagnosis will be discussed.

A210, Watts, Richard – Tailoring Treatment for the Needs of Clients

Via discussion, demonstration, and practice, this course is designed to provide attendees with (a) an understanding of Adlerian therapy techniques and selected techniques from closely related therapeutic approaches and (b) understanding of when, where and how these procedures best fit in the therapeutic process according to the phases of Adlerian therapy and the Client Stages of Change Model.

German Courses

A211, Jensch, Markus – Analyse des Lebensstils mit dem SYNCHRONIZING®-Struktur-Modell

Auf der Basis von vielen tausend Lebensstil-Analysen wurde von Markus Jensch und seinen Kollegen die Lebensstil-Kurzanalyse entwickelt. In sechs bis zwanzig Stunden kommen sechs Elemente der Diagnose und Analyse zum Einsatz. Die Choreografie ist in jahrzehntelangem Einsatz ständig optimiert worden. Teilnehmer erhalten ein gutes Rüstzeug, um eigene Lebensstil-Analysen damit zu erweitern.

A212, Landscheidt, Uti – Kunsttherapie (1) – Kühe können lila sein

Kunsttherapie wurde von Sadie T. Dreikurs als Methode der Lebensstilanalyse entwickelt. Dieser Kurs ist für jeden, der seine eigene Kreativität erforschen will, aber auch für Berater, die ihr Repertoire bei der Arbeit mit Gruppen und mit Einzelnen erweitern wollen. Er ist spannend und entspannend zugleich (keine künstlerischen Fertigkeiten erforderlich). Durch gemeinsames Arbeiten werden wir sowohl eigene Lebensstilaspekte entdecken als auch lernen, andere Kunstwerke dahingehend zu interpretieren. Basierend auf dem Buch “Kühe können lila sein” von Dreikurs (bei ICASSI erhältlich).

A213, Oberst, Ursula– Kindliches Fehlverhalten verstehen

Beschreibung: Dieser Kurs richtet sich an Eltern, Lehrer und Schulberater, die ihren Umgang mit Kindern mit Verhaltens- und Disziplinproblemen sowie mit deren Familien verbessern wollen. Auf der Basis des klassischen Adler-Dreikurs-Modells wird eine systemische und strategische Perspektive eingeführt und integriert. Problemsituationen, die von den Teilnehmern präsentiert werden, dienen als Beispiele für das Erfahrungslernen durch Rollenspiele und der Analyse der Problemsituationen.

A214, Schläpfer, Christelle – Folgen von Verwöhnung und Überbehütung

Dass Eltern das Beste für ihre Kinder wollen, ist unbestritten. In manchen Fällen ist das Beste aber schädlich, nämlich dann, wenn es darum geht, den Kindern sämtliche Steine aus dem Weg zu entfernen oder ihnen alles gleich zu ermöglichen. Im Workshop entdecken wir, wie Verwöhnung und Überbehütung die Hirnbiologie beeinflussen und was es im Erziehungsalltag für die Entwicklung von Lebenskompetenzen braucht.

Children and Youth Program

A220, Personal Development for Youth Ages 12-17, Shoham, Yoav

This course is for youth aged 12-17 to facilitate the growth of self-understanding and to increase social interest and community-oriented behavior.

*Please note: The youth registered in this course may also participate in an early morning recreation program from 8:45 until 11:00.

A221, Children’s Program (Early Morning and Morning), Irvine, Magnus; Grünig, Richard; Radu, Liliana

This program will offer athletic, art, music and play activities. Adlerian child-rearing and classroom management principles will be used.

Type A Courses Week 1* Afternoons (14:30 – 16:30)

English Courses

A301, Abramson, Zivit – Couples in Conflict

How does a couple relationship start? How does it get into trouble? The course is both for people who wish to understand their own partnership issues a little better (whether they participate as a couple or as one of the partners), and for professionals who wish to experience or witness typical Adlerian ways of understanding couple difficulties. The course will include both theoretical material and demonstration. Participants can choose to work on their couple relationship.

A302, Bluvshstein, Marina – Understanding Human Development

Adler wrote about “mysterious creative power of life which expresses itself in the desire to develop, to strive, to achieve, and even to compensate for defeats.” Using cultural metaphors generated by participants, via demonstrations and hands-on experience, this course explores the Adlerian view on human development, over the lifespan, its holistic and soft-deterministic nature, patterns and obstacles, strategies and strengths that guide humans toward sense of individual mastery and more perfect communities.

A303, Hofstra, Pauline – Self-Discovery: Movement and Boundaries

As humans we are both ‘a part of’ and ‘a-part from’ the social world. We have our own psychological inner world (based on lifestyle and private logic), with psychological boundaries that separate us from the outside world and the inner world of others. This experiential course examines how strong boundaries and maintenance of our inner world can enhance self-esteem, autonomy, compassion, empathy in the relationship with others. We will use a 3 dimensional boundary projective method called “Self-Boundary Awareness.”

A304, John, Karen – Leadership in Action

Whether a manager, supervisor, teacher or facilitator, personal and professional integrity, optimism, inspiring and consulting with others, are essential qualities of democratic leadership components. Through examining birth order, early recollections, collaborating in teams and psychodrama, participants will assess dynamics, their leadership experiences and styles and gain insight into themselves and others and how to be strong, compassionate role models and leaders.

*Educational Objectives are found on the website www.icassi.net

A305, Schürer, Yvonne – Make Your Lifestyle Work For You

Early in your life you created a work of art: your lifestyle. However, this amazing masterpiece was developed by a toddler! Still, it has guided you ever since through all the ups and downs of your life. Perhaps now is the time to look at your creation; to learn to admire the parts that are masterfully done, and to see which parts are due for revision. Learn more about Adler's concept of lifestyle through demonstrations and practical work in dyads. Open to Youth.

A306, Shoham, Yoav – The Art of Encouragement

This course will introduce very practical ways we can encourage ourselves and others. Through exercises and discussion we will explore specific strategies that can enable greater confidence, positive contribution and connection. We will clarify the differences between praise and encouragement. We will learn techniques to build courage to face the issues constructively in our personal and work life.

A307, Sperry, Jon – Adlerian Case Conceptualization

Case conceptualization is considered by many to be the most important competency expected in clinical practice today. This presentation describes a step-by-step strategy and process for developing a concise, accurate, and compelling case conceptualization and treatment plan based on the client's basic pattern of movement which integrates other key Adlerian constructs.

A308, Tate, Bruce – Creativity and Private Logic

Creativity is a key concept within Individual Psychology and is linked to our Private Logic. We create fiction in order to make sense of ourselves and life. Exploring these can help clients understand their lifestyle and creative possibilities. We will explore our basic fictions and how we can make use of them within our own lives, through presentation, discussion and experiential exercises. No prior knowledge of Adlerian theory is required.

A309, Watts, Richard – Using Music in Therapy

Based on the work of Dreikurs, there are numerous opportunities to use music in counseling or psychotherapy. Via discussion, demonstration, and practice, participants will learn how to use various music media as a useful resource in Adlerian therapy. Open to Youth.

5. PROGRAM WEEK 2

5.1 PLENARY LECTURES[†] FOR WEEK 2, 9:00 – 10:30

Monday, August 6	Understanding Alcoholic Addicts – Andrea Hillenbrand Alcoholics and other substance addicts are considered unpopular patients. They are considered difficult, being easily offended, accusing others and lying. By looking at the development of their addiction from an Adlerian point of view, we will try to understand how the substance is used to face the tasks of life and striving from a felt minus to a felt plus and why the unpopular features are logical, understandable and even make sense.
Tuesday, August 7	Encouragement - Requirement for Positive Change of Behavior – Yoav Shoham “All qualities are trained because the individual finds them effective” (R. Dreikurs). In this presentation, encouragement will be discussed as one of the most powerful and effective qualities that one can use in order to make a difference in his/her and others lives.
Wednesday, August 8	Feeling Inferior on the Web – Ursula Oberst This plenary gives an introduction to the opportunities and challenges of internet-based technologies and applications under a viewpoint of Adlerian Psychology. According to Adler, feeling connected with others is of utmost importance for the wellbeing of individuals, and inferiority feelings arise when people are discouraged and this need to belong is not satisfied. In our contemporary society, with Internet and Internet-based applications for communication, social media and online social networking sites, Adler's vision of an ideal communal life where all people can be connected, seems to have come closer. However, online communication and the use of online social networks like Facebook and WhatsApp, can also lead to negative consequences, such as inferiority feelings, especially in younger and vulnerable individuals. The implications for Adlerian theory and practice are discussed.
Thursday, August 9	Creativity – Bruce Tate Personal Creativity is one of the core tenets of Adlerian Psychology. Adler stressed the importance of creating meaning and creative strategies adopted to address life's challenges. This presentation will highlight different aspects of creativity and how these can be used for personal and social growth and enjoyment.
Friday, August 10	Cultural Diversity – Uti Landscheidt There are many different concepts of culture around the world. This presentation will compare diverse concepts in selected countries and how they go along with the principles of Adler and Dreikurs.

5.5 COURSE DESCRIPTIONS FOR WEEK 2

Type A Courses: Week 2*

Mornings (11:00 - 13:00)

English Courses

A401, Balla, Marion – Gender Issues

The course will provide participants with an increased understanding of the impact of male and female roles within intimate relationships, workplaces and the wider community. Gender guiding lines, birth stories and early memories will be used to explore personal decisions related to gender.

A402, Ferguson, Eva Dreikurs – Individual Psychology in the Workplace

Adlerian psychology helps improve human relationships in all settings, including the workplace. Workplace solutions are applicable also to problems in the family and school. Participants' own work problems are discussed. Work roles, conflict resolution, group dynamics, and personality variables are viewed within the Adler-Dreikurs framework. (1+2)

A403, Holder, Jim – Substance Addiction, Early Recollections and Life Themes

This workshop will detail the process of substance use and addiction. Participants will be updated on my current research with Francis Marion University relating to how substance use and addiction reinforces clients' beliefs, life themes, and lifestyles. Life themes are found within the metaphorical make-up of early recollections and point to the positive purpose for substance use and addiction.

A404, John, Karen – Group Dynamics and Facilitation

Promoting social equality within the workplace and in other contexts requires understanding and attending to group dynamics and group needs, as well as to individual needs and life style issues. In this interactive, experimental and experiential course, participants are invited to enact group experiences and scenarios in order to increase their effectiveness as group and team members, facilitators and leaders.

A405, Joosten, Theo – Cooperative Problem Solving

In families, community or professional settings, people meet problems. This course will explore practical ways of helping each other find encouraging solutions to these social challenges. The language and the incident method will get special attention. Participants will be able to apply the incident method. Case examples provided by the participants will be used.

A406, Oberst, Ursula – Family Relationships

To enjoy family relationships is not always an easy task, and family issues can be a source of multiple conflicts. On the basis of the classical Adler-Dreikurs model, a systemic family perspective is introduced and integrated. Problem situations presented by the participants will serve as examples for experiential learning by means of role-playing, sculpting, and enactment of the problem situation.

A407, Pelonis, Peggy – Discover the Leader in You

Using Lifestyle Assessment, participants will come to understand their personal leadership approach and learn ways to become more effective.

A408, Rasmussen, Paul – Adaptive Reorientation

In this course, the Adaptive Reorientation model of Adlerian treatment will be presented. Included will be the 6 objectives in counseling and the importance of reorientation. Topics will include lifestyle assessment, including early recollections and their role in reorientation. Attendees will be taken through the phases of treatment and provided strategies for prompting psychological change. Demonstration and practice will be included.

A409, Motivational Interviewing – Jon Sperry

Motivational Interviewing (MI) is an encouraging counseling approach that helps to elicit and strengthen motivation for change. This counseling approach is highly compatible and consistent with the philosophies that are articulated by Adlerians. Over 200 controlled clinical trials have demonstrated the effectiveness of Motivational Interviewing among clients with various presenting issues. This course will include various MI demonstrations and counseling practice opportunities.

A410, Walton, Frank – Family Counseling

The primary means of teaching this course will be through live demonstrations with parents, children, and/or adolescents, and will include lecture, and small group discussion. Participants will be given the opportunity to participate in a family counseling demonstration and will have an opportunity to observe and experience use of “the Most Memorable Observation” as a means for understanding how one’s belief system influences choice of parenting style. Helping families of children who meet the criteria for the ADHD diagnosis will be discussed.

German Courses

A411, Abramson, Zivit – Warum bin ich noch Single?

Der Kurs beschäftigt sich mit einem interessanten Phänomen: viele Menschen würden sehr gern in einer Partnerschaft sein, eine Partnerschaft eingehen, aber es klappt nicht. Sie bleiben Single. Es gibt viele Hindernisse, die der Person nicht bewusst sind, sie oder ihn aber hindern, Teil einer gemeinsam eingegangenen Partnerschaft zu werden. Wir werden diese möglichen Hindernisse diskutieren. Teilnehmer werden ermutigt, freiwillig an einer Demonstration der Arbeit mit Menschen, die Single sind, obwohl sie das ändern möchten, teilzunehmen.

A412, Jensch, M. – „Schlank & stark“ – das neue IP-Modell zur nachhaltigen Gewichtsreduktion

Die IP hat hervorragende Methoden, dem Problem des Übergewichtes „richtig“ zu Leibe zu rücken: Wozu isst der Übergewichtige? Was steckt dahinter? Wer kenntnisse über die Gesetze der Psychodynamik erworben hat, kann gut essen und dabei trotzdem abnehmen. Markus Jensch stellt seinen Werkzeugkoffer mit vielen IP-„tools“ darin vor.

A413, Landscheidt, Uti – Kunsttherapie (2) – Kühe können lila sein

Kursbeschreibung: siehe Woche 1. In Woche 2 werden wir andere Methoden benutzen als in Woche 1.

A414, Pollak, P. – Die zwei persönlichen Lebensaufgaben nach Dreikurs und Mosak

Wir beschäftigen uns in dem Kurs mit den zwei persönlichen Lebensaufgaben „gelungener Umgang mit uns selbst“ und „Kosmos / Sinnfrage“. Ein guter „Umgang mit mir selbst“ – warum gelingt es oft nicht und was können wir tun, damit es häufiger gelingt? Der „gute Umgang mit mir selbst“ als Basis für die sozialen Lebensaufgaben verstehen und die Finalität im Umgang mit mir selbst erkennen. Die Bedeutung der Sinnfrage in der Individualpsychologie herausarbeiten. Der Sinn in der Erfüllung der Lebensaufgaben und im Entwickeln des Gemeinschaftsgefühls zu erkennen. Wir stellen uns die Frage der „Sinnverteilung“. Eine Würdigung an Dreikurs und Mosak für die Weiterentwicklung der Individualpsychologie.

This program will offer athletic, art, music and play activities. Adlerian child-rearing and classroom management principles will be used.

*Please note: The program runs through Early Morning and Morning. Parents bring their children to the program at 8:45.

Type A Courses Week 2[†] Afternoons (14:30 – 16:30)

English Courses

A501, Balla, Marion – Managing Life Transitions

This course is designed to assist participants to identify and explore the losses and gains inherent in major life transitions, e.g., aging, career change, retirement, graduation, marriage/partnership, major illness, empty family nest, separation/divorce. Through the use of early recollections, anniversary dates, and the exploration of life tasks, participants will gain increased insight and strategies to manage major life transitions. Open to Youth.

A502, Bluvshstein, Marina – Goal-Directed Behavior

Why do people behave the way they behave? From light curiosity to haunting preoccupation, in everyday life and in life crises, with ourselves and Facebook strangers – we keep seeking causes of behavior. Adler insisted that we should be asking a different question: What is the goal of behavior? This experiential course will use participants’ early recollections to bring goal-directedness to a forefront of our understanding of behavior. Open to Youth.

A503, Hofstra, Pauline – Self-Discovery: Movement and Boundaries

As humans we are both ‘a part of’ and ‘a-part from’ the social world. We have our own psychological inner world (based on lifestyle and private logic), with psychological boundaries that separate us from the outside world and the inner world of others. This experiential course examines how strong boundaries and maintenance of our inner world can enhance self-esteem, autonomy, compassion, empathy in the relationship with others. We will use a 3 dimensional boundary projective method called “Self Boundary Awareness.”

A504, John, Karen – Social Equality in Action

Social equality requires new ways of leading and relating, yet we struggle to exercise our rights or assume responsibility. We will look at leadership approaches, group processes, what prevents us from using our ‘good authority’, and explore feelings and actions that undermine democratic living. Working cooperatively in teams and using ERs and psychodrama, we will strive to achieve social equality in action. Open to Youth.

[†]Educational Objectives are found on the website www.icassi.net

A505, Millar, Anthea – Working Safely with Trauma

In recent years, increased understanding of the neurological and biopsychosocial aspects of trauma has resulted in more effective processes that integrate well with an Adlerian therapeutic approach. This highly practical course will focus particularly on developing the therapeutic skills of ensuring safety and stability, enabling dual attention and building on the person's resilience and social connection.

A506, Schürer, Yvonne – Adlerian Couples Counseling

Couples counseling is not an easy task, because the counselor has to deal with two clients in conflict, simultaneously. Therefore a clear concept is needed, or sessions will become chaotic. But great flexibility is also required to prevent the counselor becoming a mere tamer. In this course a precise, but adjustable, step by step model will be introduced and explored through lecture and demonstration. Various exercises will allow the participants to adapt the model in a flexible way, and practice in different situations.

A507, Shoham, Yoav – Encouragement: Overcoming Stressful Situations

This program is designed to teach coping strategies in daily stressful situations. Using Adlerian encouragement principles in various creative ways, enables us in dealing with daily life pressures.

A508, Sperry, Jon – Drumming and Music in IP

Drum and music therapy are holistic interventions that assist individuals and groups to foster social interest and well-being. This course will review drum and music therapy interventions that can be used for self-care or with clients in a therapeutic setting. The format for this course will be highly experiential and will also include some brief lectures. Open to Youth.

A509, Tate, Bruce – Introduction to ERs

Early Recollections (ERs) play a central role in Adlerian therapy. In ERs we uncover strengths and resources alongside nonverbal messages and descriptions of how we view ourselves, others and life. This course will introduce theory and also enable learners to develop practical skills to help them work with ERs. The course will include experiential and creative elements.

German Courses

A510, Abramson, Zivit – Adlerianische Psychotherapie und Beratung: anders als andere psychologische Schulen

Dieser Kurs vermittelt kompakt die Struktur der Adlerianischen Beratung oder Therapie mit Klienten. Was unterscheidet den Adlerianer von Psychotherapeuten anderer Schulen? Welche Ziele wollen wir wirklich mit unserer Arbeit erreichen? Wie machen wir das? Es wird Demonstrationen typischer Sitzungen geben, zu denen die Teilnehmer um ihre aktive Teilnahme gebeten werden.

A511, Hillenbrand, Andrea – Dem Burn-Out vorbeugen

Um einem Burnout vorzubeugen arbeiten wir daran, Balance im Leben wiederherzustellen. Dazu nutzen wir die Lebensaufgaben nach Alfred Adler. Wichtig für die Veränderung ist es ebenso sich der persönlichen Ziele und uneingestanden Einstellungen bewusst zu werden. Deshalb werden wir die eigenen Standards und Verhaltensmuster untersuchen durch die Analyse der Familienkonstellation und früher Kindheitserinnerungen. Wir werden vorhandene Stärken aufzeigen, die helfen, den äußeren Herausforderungen zu begegnen.

German Courses

A512, Oberst, Ursula – Im Cyberspace und in den sozialen Medien

Neue Technologien und soziale Medien beeinflussen zunehmend menschliches Verhalten, und virtuelle Beziehungen und Interaktionen sind sehr verbreitet. Neue Verhaltensweisen wie Online Social Networking, Online-Spiele, Online-Dating und die Verwendung einer Vielzahl von Internet-basierten Anwendungen entstehen in sowohl funktionaler als auch dysfunktionaler Weise. Dieser Kurs richtet sich an jüngere und ältere Nutzer und Nichtbenutzer von Internetanwendungen. Im Rahmen der Individualpsychologie werden wir analysieren, wie sich Menschen in einer virtuellen Welt verhalten, wie sie Zugehörigkeit, Minderwertigkeit und Gemeinschaftsgefühl erleben. Teilnehmer, vor allem Jugendliche, sind eingeladen, ihre Computer mitzubringen und die von ihnen benutzten Online-Anwendungen (z. B. Online-Spiele, Social Networking Sites) zur Verfügung zu stellen. Open to Youth.

A513, Strubel, Ulrike – Kindheitserinnerungen – Die Schatzkiste für Berater und Klient

Kindheitserinnerungen – angenehme und unangenehme – sind eine wahre Fundgrube für uns als Berater. Sie zeigen klar und deutlich die in früher Kindheit entwickelten Stärken und Fähigkeiten eines Menschen. Hier sind auch die Stolpersteine versteckt, die auf dem Weg zum Ziel hinderlich sein können. Wir üben an unseren eigenen Erinnerungen nach einer Methode von Dr. Rachel Shifron aus Israel.

*Educational Objectives are found on the website www.icassi.net

B601, Bettner, Betty Lou – Adler, Crucial Cs and Life Tasks

Alfred Adler outlined four psychological needs for mentally healthy individuals. Since we are socially embedded, belonging is the most essential, followed by the need to grow and improve. Number three is to experience a way to contribute to society for a sense of significance; and finally, everyone needs to be encouraged since courage is required to go forward and meet life's challenges. We call them, "The Crucial Cs" – to Connect, to be Capable, to feel that we Count, and to have Courage. We will explore these topics and their application to Adler's life tasks for the purpose of personal growth and enlightenment.

B602, Shifron, Rachel – Adlerian Supervision

The purpose of this course is to present an Adlerian model for supervision in three professional fields: Therapy, Counseling and Teaching. The supervisor is a good listener and has to be an expert in understanding the supervisee's lifestyle. Therefore, issues concerning lifestyle and use of early recollections will be part of the workshop. Therapists, counselors and teachers are welcome to take part in this workshop.

A520, Youth Recreation, 12-17 year olds, Shoham, Noam

Youth 12-17 from various countries will together determine the activities (games, art, drama, music, photography, etc.) to be engaged in during the session, using an interactive decision-making model. Activities focus on connecting with one another and developing capabilities in collaboration and team (play) work. Games are cooperative in nature and focus on including all participants.

A521, Children's Recreation, Grünig, Richard, Radu, Liliana

Come and have fun with us! Children will be offered art, music, athletic activities and games in a class that uses Adlerian child-rearing and classroom management principles. Small group meetings will give children the chance to plan activities.

6. CHILDREN AND YOUTHS PROGRAMS

THE PROGRAM

While at ICASSI, parents or guardians are responsible for their children and youth at all times. Youth and children are NOT allowed to attend ICASSI without a parent or guardian accompanying them. Parents and guardians are expected to be clear about rules, boundaries and expected behavior. Children and youth are all expected to be housed in rooms with their parents or in adjacent rooms.

ICASSI offers a unique, international, educational program for children and youths. Qualified teachers will lead the children, through play, into the basics of Individual Psychology. There is a special value to having a multi-lingual (English, German, Dutch, Hebrew) experience in this children's program, as children become more culturally aware and comfortable in a global society. The objective of the teachers is to encourage children to find their place confidently in the group. The educational world of ICASSI is determined by people learning with each other about the world around them. Here the approach is "Help me do it by myself with others in a way that my abilities will contribute to the community." Parents are included in this process. The program is a unique opportunity for young people to learn and socialize in an encouraging atmosphere.

The Children's Program is open to children ages 4 to 11 during the morning and afternoon sessions. Children must be at least 4 years old and toilet trained to participate in ICASSI's Children's Program.

The Youth Program is open to youth, ages 12 to 17. Youth from various countries will together determine the activities (e.g., games, art, drama, music, photography, etc.) to be engaged in during the session, using an interactive decision-making model. Team activities are cooperative in nature and focus on including all participants. All youth 12-17 will participate in the Morning Course Personal Development for Youth 12-17 and the Afternoon Course, Youth Recreation. As an option during the afternoon session, Youth 16 to 17 may also participate in adult courses in the afternoon that indicate they are open to youth.

Parents of children under 4 years of age must make their own arrangements for child care. ICASSI does not provide care to this age group. Information to help parents find resources may be provided on request.

PARENT MEETINGS

Staff running the programs for children and youth will be available during registration to meet with parents and respond to their questions. Parents (or guardians) and their children and youth are required to meet with program staff on Monday evening of each week. It is required that all parents attend. The time and place of the meetings will be announced at registration and at the plenary lecture on Monday morning. Parents may refer to the newsletter to learn the location as well.

7. SITE 2018 : HAUS VENUSBERG, BONN, GERMANY

THE SITE

ICASSI will be held at Haus Venusberg, a training centre situated in the southern part of the city of Bonn, Germany. Bonn was the former capital of Germany until the unification when Berlin was reinstalled as Germany's capital city. It is a city on the banks of the river Rhine and has about 350,000 inhabitants. Founded in the first century BC as a Roman settlement, Bonn is one of Germany's oldest cities. The city is now the location of 19 United Nations institutions and the University of Bonn. It is the birthplace of Ludwig van Beethoven (born 1770). For more information about Bonn see: <http://www.bonn.de/>

THE VENUE

The Haus Venusberg training centre is made up of three houses (Häuser) containing guest rooms and classrooms. The dining room is a separate building with 200 seats. All of the buildings are an easy 3 minute walkable distance of each other. There is no air conditioning at the site, the climate usually does not require it.

Haus 3 at the entrance houses reception and the auditorium, where the plenaries and evening programs will be held. It is also where the ICASSI office will be located. A lounge area and a café in this building are central locations where participants can congregate in the evenings. Outside of the dining hall (between Haus 1 and 3) is an inviting seating area which also lends itself to socializing. Photos can be seen at the website <http://www.haus-venusberg.de> (only in German).

For the children and youth there is an outdoor playground and there are also game rooms and a gymnasium located in the basement of Haus 3. There is a big football field and a forest behind house 2. The area of the site is very safe and is situated in a quiet district.

Haus Venusberg offers free wifi, but because of the conditions of the site, it is not always reliable all of the time and everywhere. It may be variable at times of high use. Participants may need to go to common areas to access internet if they cannot access it in their rooms.

There are no refrigerators in the guest rooms at Haus Venusberg, however there is a vending machine in the lobby of Haus 3 where coffee and cold drinks can be purchased. A supermarket is next to the entrance of Haus Venusberg. Within a 5-minute walk there are a few small cafes where participants can buy lunch.

MEALS

Breakfast. Participants will eat breakfast at the locations where they are staying (please read the descriptions of the breakfasts in the accommodation information below).

Lunch is not included in the fee for accommodations, therefore participants are on their own for lunch. The dining room at Haus Venusberg is offering lunch to participants who register for the entire week in advance (either on regonline, or on the paper registration form). The cost is € 27.50 each week. Everyone will eat the same meal that the kitchen prepares. The lunch might be pizza, hotdogs, fish and chips, etc. Salad may be served depending on the meal.

Dinner for all participants who are registered in one of the ICASSI accommodations (Haus Venusberg, Youth Hostel or V-Hotel) is included in the price for accommodations. Each evening (except the middle Saturday) one 3-course menu will be provided (meaning that everyone will eat the same meal for dinner). It will include: salad, entrée and dessert (They do not serve pork.) There will be a vegetarian option for those persons who register in advance as a vegetarian. The kitchen is also able to prepare meals for those persons who have gluten or lactose restrictions and who register for gluten-free or lactose-free meals on the registration form. The kitchen is not able to serve persons with other dietary restrictions. Participants who would like more variety for their dinners, or who have other dietary needs, may want to choose to stay in an off-site location. Participants who are staying off-site and who wish to eat dinner at Haus Venusberg may register to eat dinner in the dining room by registering for this option in advance (either on regonline, or on the paper registration form). Off-Site Participants must register for the entire week and the cost is € 42.50 per week (since Friday dinner is included in the off-site fee).

REGISTERING FOR YOUR CHOICE OF ACCOMMODATIONS:

Haus Venusberg, Youth Hostel, and V-Hotel.

Please carefully review the room options available before you register. Please note that some types of rooms are very limited and are only available on a first-come-first-serve basis. There is no guarantee your room type will be available when you register. You may need to make a second choice. Note: Only Haus Venusberg offers a small reduction in the accommodation rates for children and youth.

Haus Venusberg has guest rooms in three different houses. The rooms are functional and clean and simply furnished, most with a bed, table, chair and closet. Bed linens and towels are provided. There are single and double rooms (and only a limited number of them have ensuite baths). There are also a limited number of rooms that can house families or friends for groups of 3, 4 or 5 persons, of which some of them have bunk beds. These group/family rooms are relatively small but are economical. These few group rooms that have ensuite bathrooms will be assigned on a first-come basis according to reservation date. Family rooms in Haus 2 are narrow with 2 sets of bunkbeds. There is no air-conditioning or amenities in the rooms. Haus Venusberg offers free wifi, but because of the conditions of the site, it is not always reliable all of the time and everywhere. It may be variable at times of high use. Participants may need to go to common areas to access internet if they cannot access it in their rooms. There is no laundry at Haus Venusberg, however, arrangements are being made for laundry services and more details will be available in a letter to participants in June 2018. Breakfast is included. Breakfast includes rolls and bread, cold cuts, cheese, marmalade and honey, cereals, yogurt, and fruit. <http://www.haus-venusberg.de>.

The Youth Hostel is located about a 5-7 minute walk from Haus Venusberg. In the tradition of youth hostels in Germany, the youth hostel is of a high standard since it hosts conferences and meetings. The youth hostel offers single and doubles all with ensuite bathrooms. The rooms are efficient and compact. There are no amenities in the rooms. Common areas include a bistro, patio and fireside reading room. Free wifi is available, but because of the conditions of the site, it is not always reliable all of the time and everywhere. It may be variable at times of high use. There are laundry facilities onsite. Breakfast is included, it is basic and is eaten in the Youth Hostel. Participants can visit the website at <http://www.jugendherberge.de/en/youth-hostels/bonn438/Portrait>

Keys: Participants in all locations will be issued keys. A key deposit is not charged, however, in the event a key is lost, participants will be charged a replacement fee. The Youth Hostel charges a replacement fee of € 85.

Adding additional nights: At all 3 locations, participants arriving for week one may add an additional night prior to ICASSI and arrive on Saturday, July 28. All participants leaving at the end of week one must check out on Saturday, August 4 so that rooms can be prepared for the persons arriving for week two. No additional nights may be added following week one. Since rooms will not be ready for participants arriving for week two until Sunday, August 5, week two participants may not arrive early. Week two participants have the option to add one night to the end of their stay and check out on Sunday, August 12. Registration for these additional nights include bed and breakfast only (it does not include dinner).

Off-Site Accommodations: There are more options for individuals who wish to stay off-site. Within a 12-minute walk from Haus Venusberg is the famous Dorint Hotel Bonn Venusberg. There are also private Bed and Breakfast establishments. More information regarding these options will be on the ICASSI website, icassi.net in January 2018. Participants will need to book these themselves.

This bus trip will last 16 or 19 minutes and cost € 2,80*. A taxi from the airport to Bonn will be about € 50,00*. The airport is about 25 km. from Haus Venusberg.

Düsseldorf International Airport is located about 85 km from Bonn. It is one of the biggest airports in Germany with many direct flight connections to the US and European destinations. There is a direct train connection from Düsseldorf Airport to Bonn Central Station (Hbf) which runs every hour and takes 1 hour and 5 minutes (9.50, 10.50, 11.50,...). And costs € 18.10*. Once you arrive in Bonn Central Station follow the instructions above to reach Haus Venusberg.

*These were the prices at the time the book was printed.

Frankfurt International Airport is an international airport that is about an hour and 45 minutes from Bonn. There are two options: 1) ICE (high speed train; 70 – 80 minutes). From Frankfurt am Main Flughafen Fernbahnhof, the long-distance train station at Frankfurt airport, take an ICE train to Siegburg/Bonn. At Siegburg/Bonn, take the tram (U-Bahn) No.66 to reach Bonn Hauptbahnhof (Bonn central station). 2) IC/EC (slower trains along the Rhine valley, 100 – 120 minutes). An alternative connections runs via the city of Mainz, and passes along the scenic Rhine valley. A few trains go directly to Bonn central station (departing at the train station at Frankfurt airport at 07:58, 11:58, 13:58, ...), for other connections you have to change trains in Mainz. <https://www.raileurope.ca/popular-routes/frankfurt-airport-to-bonn.html>

Traveling in Germany: If you are able to spend some extra days in Germany, you will be happy to know that there are many options for trips from Bonn. For example, you can get to Berlin via a 4-hour-train-trip.

Car parking: Car parking is available free of charge, but the parking lot spaces are limited at Haus Venusberg, the Youth Hostel and the V-Hotel; therefore some participants may have to park on the side of the street. Parking is not guaranteed.

8. GENERAL INFORMATION

TUITION

Tuition covers all courses, plenary, special interest presentations and all evening programs. If a partner of a participant stays in an ICASSI accommodation he or she must pay the special tuition. This allows the partner to attend the plenary, special interest presentations and the evening programs.

SCHOLARSHIP FUND

ICASSI strives to provide high quality continuing education while keeping fees for the tuition and accommodations as low as possible. Despite the best efforts, ICASSI needs donations to maintain the high quality, inclusiveness, and accessibility of ICASSI while keeping the prices down. The scholarships provide the opportunity for exemplary candidates to participate who would not otherwise be able due to financial limitations. Participants are encouraged to consider giving a donation when they register. Those persons unable to attend ICASSI are encouraged to consider a donation that would allow someone else to attend. Donations can be made on the ICASSI website or by sending a contribution to ICASSI using the bank account number listed under “paying for ICASSI” or by sending a check made out to ICASSI to Betty Haeussler, 9212 Morley Road, Lanham, MD, 20706, USA. Persons who make a donation may ask to have their name listed as a Scholarship Fund contributor on ICASSI’s website.

CREDIT FOR CONTINUING EDUCATION

It is anticipated that Continuing Education credit through the American Psychological Association will be available for licensed psychologists and other licensed mental health professionals.

The Canadian Counseling Association has also pre-approved ICASSI for continuing education credits. Claim forms will be available at ICASSI. Details will be available at ICASSI or by addressing questions to the administrator at info.icassi@gmail.com.

COURSE CREDIT

University Course Credit: Students who would like to have their ICASSI courses credited towards their University studies should discuss the possibility with their professors prior to registering at ICASSI. ICASSI faculty members are willing to contact professors directly to explain educational objectives and course criteria in support of students receiving credit. For further details, contact: Becky LaFountain, ICASSI Administrator, E-mail: info.icassi@gmail.com.

Holy Family University in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA will be offering three graduate credits in counseling for a “pre-approved” curriculum of study taken at ICASSI for the two-week program. Curriculum approval and university tuition payments are made directly to Holy Family University in U.S. dollars. For further details contact Dr. Betty Lou Bettner. E-mail: bbettner@holyfamilly.edu

Adler Graduate School, Minnesota, USA: Participants who are eligible for graduate school credit and wish to have credit for their ICASSI experience from the Adler Graduate School can contact: Dr. Richard Close, Adler Graduate School. E-mail: richard.close@alfredadler.edu
