

Theo Joosten lectured at Trakia University in Stara Zagora (Bulgaria) in the middle of November. This visit was part of the agreement between Trakia University and ICASSI. The topic was: "Understanding (mis)behaviour from an Adlerian Perspective." The first two days were attended by bachelor students (75) of the Faculty of Education. MAster students (35) were present the next two days. Besides offering lectures, there were three interviews on TV and radio.

